

SUPPORTING REPORT FROM THE TÉCNICAS REUNIDAS, S.A. BOARD OF DIRECTORS CONCERNING THE PROPOSED RE-ELECTION AND APPOINTMENT OF MR. JOSÉ NIETO DE LA CIERVA AS INDEPENDENT NON-EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

I. Whereas

1. Mr. José Nieto de la Cierva was appointed an independent non-executive director of Técnicas Reunidas, S.A. (the “Company”) by means of a resolution passed by the Company’s Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders on June 27, 2018, for a period of 4 years pursuant to the provisions of the law and the Bylaws.
2. Based on the provisions of article 20 of the Company’s Board of Directors Regulations and given the imminent end of the term for which Mr. José Nieto de la Cierva was appointed director of the Company, the Appointments and Remunerations Commission has assessed the opportunity of re-electing Mr. José Nieto de la Cierva as an independent non-executive director.
3. To this end, the Commission has taken into account, among other aspects, that the efficiency of the Board of Directors in performing its duties increases with the presence of independent directors. On the other hand, the February 2015 Spanish National Securities Market Commission Good Governance Code (the “Good Governance Code”) recommends that the number of directors be 5 to 15 and that proprietary and independent directors represent a high majority over executive directors in addition to independent directors representing at least one-third of the total members of the Board.
4. After concluding the evaluation process, the Company’s Appointments and Remunerations Commission decided that Mr. José Nieto de la Cierva has the proper profile for re-election as a Company independent non-executive director.
5. As a result, the Appointments and Remunerations Commission unanimously agreed to propose the re-election of Mr. José Nieto de la Cierva as an independent non-executive director so that said body may then submit such proposal to the Company’s Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders which is expected to be held on June 28, 2022.
6. Likewise, the Company’s Board of Directors approved this supporting report issued for the purposes of assessing Mr. José Nieto de la Cierva’s competence, experience and merits based on the Appointments and Remunerations Commission proposal attached as Annex I.

II. Legal Aspects

Director Category

7. In view of the provisions of article 529.duodecies.4 of the Spanish Corporate Enterprises Act (“LSC”, as it is known in Spanish), those who are designated in view of their personal and professional characteristics and may perform their duties without being conditioned by their relationship with the company or the group, major shareholders or management shall be considered independent directors. Anyone in any of the situations established in said rule may not be considered for the role of independent director.
8. To this end, Mr. José Nieto de la Cierva is a person not affiliated with the Company who is not in any of the situations established in said article 529.duodecies.4 LSC, which guarantees he may perform his duties without being conditioned by his relationship with the Company or its group, significant shareholders or management.

Re-election procedure

9. Pursuant to the provisions of articles 529 decies.4 and 529.quindecies.3.c) LSC and articles 18 of the Board of Directors Regulations and 3 of the Company’s Appointments and Remunerations Commission Regulations, the re-election of Mr. José Nieto de la Cierva as an independent non-executive director must be proposed by the Appointments and Remunerations Commission to the Board of Directors and approved by the Company’s General Meeting of Shareholders.

Furthermore, the re-election proposal must be accompanied by a supporting report by the Board of Directors evaluating the director’s competence, experience and merits as established in article 529.decies.5 LSC.

10. At the same time, article 20 of the Board Regulations provides that the Board of Directors, before proposing the re-election of directors to the General Meeting of Shareholders, shall evaluate, with the abstention of the affected parties, the quality of the work and dedication to the position of the proposed directors during the previous term of office.

III. Substantiation of the Re-election. The Director’s Competence, Experience and Merits

11. Mr. José Nieto de la Cierva has the competence, experience and merits necessary to perform the office of director as clearly reflected by his resumé which is attached as Annex II to this Report. The director thus demonstrates an excellent education and impressive professional experience in the business sector and the financial sector, in particular.

12. As regards his education, Mr. José Nieto de la Cierva holds a degree in Economics and Business Administration from the Complutense University of Madrid.
13. As regards his professional career, Mr. José Nieto de la Cierva has ample professional experience in the business sector and particularly in the financial sector. As regards the business sector, Mr. José Nieto de la Cierva has held positions of maximum responsibility in JP Morgan, Banesto, the Banca March Group and Banco Sabadell. Mr. José Nieto de la Cierva is currently Chairman of Kenta Capital.
14. At the same time and as concerns the provisions of Recommendation 25 of the Good Governance Code, Mr. José Nieto de la Cierva has confirmed he currently has the necessary time available for proper performance of his duties as an independent member of the Company's Board of Directors.
15. In accordance with the foregoing, the Board of Directors believes Mr. José Nieto de la Cierva's profile and experience along with his knowledge of how the Company works and its business, not to mention the positive assessment of the exercise of his duties throughout his last term, make him ideal for re-election as a Company independent non-executive director.
16. Moreover, the Board of Directors believes that, by re-electing Mr. José Nieto de la Cierva, it will continue to have the capacity, knowledge, experience and other various requirements necessary to best perform its duties considering the legal criteria and good governance recommendations to this end and avoiding any type of discrimination of any kind.

III. Conclusion

17. In short, the excellent aptitudes and qualifications of Mr. José Nieto de la Cierva as well as his economic, administrative and international market knowledge, which has been repeatedly proven throughout his career, make him the ideal candidate for re-election as a Company independent non-executive director.

Annex I

PROPOSAL FROM THE APPOINTMENTS AND REMUNERATIONS COMMISSION CONCERNING THE RE-ELECTION AND APPOINTMENT OF MR. JOSÉ NIETO DE LA CIERVA AS AN INDEPENDENT NON-EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR OF TÉCNICAS REUNIDAS, S.A.

1. Introduction

Pursuant to the provisions of article 529 decies.4 of the recast text of the Spanish Corporate Enterprises Act approved by Spanish Royal Legislative Decree 1/2010 of 2 July (hereinafter, “LSC”) and articles 18 of the Board of Directors Regulations and 3 of the Appointments and Remunerations Commission Regulations governing Técnicas Reunidas, S.A. (hereinafter, “Técnicas Reunidas” or the “Company”), the power to make proposals for the appointment or re-election of members of the Board of Directors considered independent directors corresponds to the Appointments and Remunerations Commission.

The Executive President of the Técnicas Reunidas Board of Directors communicated to the President of the Appointments and Remunerations Commission the imminent end of the terms of various Company directors and, as a result of such circumstance, assigned the Appointments and Remunerations Commission with the task of evaluating the current composition of the Board of Directors and the suitability of re-electing these directors and, as appropriate, begin the search for ideal candidates to be appointed Company directors.

For such purposes, the Company’s Appointments and Remunerations Commission has taken the current composition of the Board of Directors into account, considering that overall it has the adequate knowledge, competence, experience and other various characteristics to effectively manage Técnicas Reunidas activities and thus, ensuring the Board of Directors’ full capacity to make autonomous and independent decisions in the best interest of the Company and, thus, of all of its shareholders.

To this end and in view of the imminent end of his current term as director, the Company’s Appointments and Remunerations Commission makes the following proposal concerning the re-election of Mr. José Nieto de la Cierva as a member of the Técnicas Reunidas Board of Directors as an independent non-executive director.

Therefore, this Commission has evaluated the candidate’s education and professional experience as well as his adequacy as concerns the Board’s competence matrix, his adequacy for the corresponding category, the assessment of his performance over the last term and contributions to the diversity of the Board of Directors composition.
